PROFILE

I hold a Bachelor of Science and Education in Chemistry Education with masters in Chemistry Education. (in View). I have over four years Basic Science teaching experience of both the Nigerian and British curricula in Primary and Secondary schools. With a great passion for knowledge acquisition and impartation; I seek constantly to build young minds by directing students towards the discovery as well as full realisation of their potentials, talents and aspirations in the course of my teaching career. I am a highly efficient, reliable and honest person who contributes passionately through resourcefulness and innovation towards the achievement of the organizational goals of whichever establishment I work for. Notably characteristic of my personality are excellent interpersonal and computer science skills as well as written and verbal communication.
